

being guilty of a breach of that law of good manners which forbids to praise our friends to their faces, but the idea of
rushing into a newspaper responsibility!

The torture of the continual dripping of water on the hair & of blood from a vein at the same time, is the only fit image of it, as

I know perfectly well. Truly you shall have your reward - I know
the cause will succeed & be victorious,
by that same fight
is funds enough few
but enough - to live & die by it. I really hope much of Mr. Hill in after years. He seems greatly interested. Is he healthy? I conclude so from his air & manner.

there is that indescribable something about him which says "you see before you a man
with grounds & gold
enough to be set down in the annals of his country Statesmen as eminently respectable." But henceforth I like him much. I mark ed him in my own mind for an occasional hundred pounds, if he ri-pens well. "I wish you may get it," as they say in the U.S. S. Pugh will understand this collo-

D
7.2
49